

JULES GOUX WINS 500 MILE AUTO RACE

Frenchman Driving Peugeot Maintains Speed of 76.59 Miles Per Hour

WISHART IN MERCER 2ND

Merz Who Finished Third in Stutz Drove Last Lap of Race With His Car on Fire

ENGLISH CAR RANKS FOURTH

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., MAY 30.—Jules Goux, a Frenchman driving a French car, the Peugeot, to day won the third annual 500 mile race at the speedway in 6:31:33.45, at an average speed of 76.59 miles an hour.

Two participants were seriously injured when the Mason, driven by Jack Tower, upset on the back turn, due to a tire blowout. Tower's right leg was broken and Lee Dunning, his mechanic, received three broken ribs and internal injuries.

Physicians at the Methodist hospital where the men were taken were not sure as to the extent of Dunning's injuries tonight.

Charles Merz who finished third in a Stutz brought the biggest thrill to the crowd, estimated at 100,000 when he drove the last lap of the race with his car on fire. The flames broke out in the upper stretch turn, and Merz refused to stop at the pits until he had circled the track another time and finished the race. Coming down the home stretch in the finish, Harry Martin, Merz' mechanic climbed out on the hood of the car and unbuckled the straps so that the pitmen could extinguish the flames immediately.

Four Foreign Cars in Money.

Four out of the eight foreign cars entered finished in the prizes the other four being forced out by broken parts.

An American car, a Mercer, driven by Spencer Wishart, finished second, seven laps behind the winner. The Sunbeam, an English car driven by Frenchman, Albert Guyot came in fourth. The other foreign cars in the money were Pilette's Mercedes Knight, (German) which was fifth and Mulford's Mercedes, (German) seventh. The three Italian cars were forced out of the contest.

Intense Heat Slows Race.

The race was a little more than ten minutes slower than last year's contest which was run in 6:21:06. This was due, it was said, in a large measure, to the intense heat, which necessitated many changes of tires. All the speedway records for the class of cars were broken up to 250 miles, when the many stops at the pit began to cut down the average.

Goux complained at every stop at the pit because his manager refused to let him put his car to its highest speed. He claimed that he could have made much better time but his manager contended that as he was in the lead from the 140th mile there was no use to let the Peugeot out. Goux, after getting the lead from Burman when he stopped for oil and gasoline, was never headed and finished far in the lead of his nearest competitor. Anderson's Stutz pushed the leader hard until the 15th lap when the car was forced out by a broken magneto shaft.

Won Fame as Driver in France.

Goux first won fame as a race driver in France, where he was victor in a 492 mile race. Before coming here he won the Brooklands tracks in England where he made 195 miles 37 yards in sixty minutes in the same car in which he raced to day. His record in the 492 mile race broke all European records for the distance while his performance at Brooklands track broke all world's records.

Burman favorite in the race, ran a hard luck race. In the 50th lap his car caught fire in the back stretch. He put this out and ran to the pits where he had to change carburetors. He had to make several other stops at the pits and was relieved at the wheel by Hughie Hughes, who was still on the track, about twenty laps behind, when the tenth car finished.

Early in the race Evans' Mason turned completely around on the lower turn but the car stayed on its wheels and Evans continued until near the end of the contest.

The Prize Winning Cars

Besides the prizes and trophies offered by accessory concerns the following prizes were given by the speedway management to the winners, which, with their times, follow in order:

MUCH INTEREST IN RULING ON LIBEL LAW

PROTECT NEWSPAPERS FROM CONSEQUENCES OF HONEST MISTAKES

Section of Michigan Libel Law Also Provides That Demand For Retraction Be Made By the Offended Party—Lawyers Await Judge's Ruling.

MARQUETT, MICH., MAY 30.—Lawyers in attendance on the suit of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newett, charging libel are looking forward with great interest to a prospective ruling by Judge Flannigan, construing section 10,425 of the Michigan compiled laws, bearing on libel. The law was designed to protect newspapers from the consequences of honest mistakes and providing that demand for retraction of a libelous article should be made by the offended party.

Colonel Roosevelt made no such demand, it is admitted, and on this point the legal experts are looking for interesting developments. The matter will come up when counsel for Mr. Newett attempts to show that the editor made his charge of drunkenness in good faith and without malice, believing it to be true. Judge Flannigan will have to rule assuming that the article was printed maliciously but in the absence of demand for retraction, whether the alleged bad faith of Mr. Newett may be taken into account in estimating damages.

Receives Veterans.

Colonel Roosevelt spent a quiet day but he was unable to resist the persistence of the veterans who had asked him to address them and compromised by receiving them at the home of George Shiras, his host, where he addressed them at some length.

The following of a fog horn throughout the night and during the morning failed to disturb him.

William Loch, Jr., who was Colonel Roosevelt's secretary while he was president, W. E. M. Roosevelt, his cousin, Frank Tyree and James Sloan probably will be the witnesses tomorrow. Tyree and Sloan were Roosevelt's guards at Washington and on his campaign trips while he occupied the presidency.

QUEL AND KOHLEHMAINEN WIN TEN MILE TEAM RUNNING RACE

Longboat and Wood Were Second, Meadows and Cooks Third.

New York, May 30.—William Quel of Alexander Bay, N. Y., and William Kohlehmäinen of Finland won the ten mile international professional team running race at Elbert's field, Brooklyn today. The winner's time was 45 minutes 4 1/5 seconds. Tom Longboat and Alfred E. Wood were the second team and J. Meadows and Ted Cooks, third.

Although track conditions and a strong wind bothered the athletes at Celtic park, there were two notable performances. J. E. Meredith University of Pennsylvania world's one-half mile amateur champion went out of his distance and defeated Abel Kivi of the Irish American Athletic club by inches in a three quarter mile run in 3:08. Hannes Kohlehmäinen, running for the Irish A. A. C., won the five mile race in 25:13 4-5, the American record for which is 25:09 1-5.

BRYAN WILL SIGN FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY

Announcement of Seventeenth Amendment to Constitution For Direct Election of Senators.

Washington, May 30.—Secretary Bryan will sign the formal announcement of the seventeenth amendment to the constitution, providing for the direct election of United States senators, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The proclamation that the requisite number of the state legislatures has ratified the amendment marks the successful outcome of a movement started eighty-seven years ago and Mr. Bryan has invited several who share his enthusiasm over the event to be present when he signs the document.

Among those invited are former Representative Harry St. George Tucker of Virginia, chairman of the house committee which reported the resolution that has been favorably acted upon, and Senator Borah, long a champion of direct election of the upper body of congress.

WILL BE BURIED TODAY.

Piqua, O., May 30.—The body of Luther McCarty who met his death last Saturday in a prize fight with Arthur Pelkey at Calgary, Canada arrived here tonight and was taken to the home of his father, A. B. McCarty. In the funeral party were Mrs. Rhoda McCarty, widow of the fighter; William McCarty, McCarty's manager and Fred Sears. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

MASSON FIRED UPON BY MEXICAN GUNNERS

AVIATOR TARGET FOR GUNBOAT IN GUYAMAS BAY

Airship Was Fired Upon While at a Height of 5,000 Feet and None of the Shells Took Effect—Birdman Made No Attempt to Drop Any Bombs.

NOGALES, ARIZ., MAY 30.—Aviator Didier Masson yesterday sailed his big bi-plane over the Gunboat Guerrero in Guyamas Bay. The ships gunners fired at the aeroplane, which remained at a height of five thousand feet. None of the shells took effect, or did Masson attempt to drop any bombs. To show his defiance of the federal gunners he made five flights over the bay.

In the meantime the state troops were driving the federals toward Guaymas, official state reports say.

Masson, who was in this city last year with the Motordrome company, was the first aviator to make a successful flight over Jacksonville with an aeroplane. Until recently he had been giving exhibition flights at fairs, but a few weeks ago undertook to cross the Mexican border, taking with him an aeroplane which it was charged he was to use in the employment of the insurgents. He was captured by United States government officers but later crossed the border with his machine.

EXERCISES FOR NATION'S SAILOR AND SOLDIER DEAD

Each Grave of a Known or Unknown Hero Received Its Flag and Flowers.

Washington, May 30.—Veterans of the civil and Spanish-American wars and members of the various women's auxiliaries and other patriotic societies here today joined in the annual Memorial day exercises and the decoration of the graves of the nation's soldier and sailor dead. The principal exercises were held at the national military cemetery at Arlington, Virginia, where each grave of a known or unknown hero received its small flag and its blanket of flowers, the fallen warriors of the gray not being forgotten.

At Arlington the main part of the day's program was in the afternoon when Rev. James S. Montgomery delivered an impassioned plea for universal peace to replace disastrous wars.

At almost the same time Senator Sherman of Illinois, as the principal speaker at the Soldiers' home exercises was declaring that no man alive today would see the time when war would be no more.

"All human history is written," he said, "in the blaze of hostile camp fires and its quickening music made on the march of battlefields."

Secretary and Mrs. Egan took part in the Arlington ceremonies. They were participants in the decorations of the "tomb of the unknown dead" and the Spanish-American war exercises.

At all the ceremonies the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address was a feature, as best expressing the sentiments of those who took part.

PLACED IN MASOLEUM.

Frederick, Md., May 30.—The body of Barbara Fritchie, heroine of Whittiers' poem and that of her husband, John C. Fritchie, which were recently disinterred from the old reformed Congregational cemetery here were formally deposited in the new mausoleum in Mount Olive cemetery to day. The mausoleum is adjacent to the grave of Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner."

The reburial was made an occasion for interesting ceremonies, conducted by the G. A. R. and other patriotic organizations. A feature was the recitation of Whittiers' poem by Miss Medora Matz, a grand niece of Barbara Fritchie.

GRAVES OF PAUPER STREWN WITH FLOWERS

Chicago, May 30.—For the first time in the city's history, the graves of the paupers at Dunning, the Cook county poor farm were strewn with flowers today. The remembrance was from Local No. 1 of the Iterant Workers.

Several hundred men and women gathered at the potters' field where the dead are buried three in a grave.

Services were held and numerous members of the union spoke. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the potters' fields are a disgrace to civilization.

SPANISH CABINET RESIGNS.

Madrid, May 30.—The cabinet resigned today, the result of an attack in the chamber of deputies yesterday on the military policy in Morocco. Their resignations were accepted provisionally by King Alfonso, who immediately called into conference the leaders of all the parties with a view to asking one of them to form a new cabinet.

COACHES DERAILLED.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 30.—Two coaches of a Missouri Pacific passenger train were derailed near Scott's Station seven miles west of here this afternoon. The train was moving slowly and none of the passengers or trainmen was injured. The accident was caused by the falling of a brake beam.

IMPORTERS SECURE RATE REDUCTION

Committee Decides to Reduce Proposed Rate on Cut Diamonds

GOOD FOR SMUGGLERS

Twenty Per Cent Duty Would Force Dealers to Buy Diamonds from Smugglers

OFFICERS OPPOSE HIGH RATE

WASHINGTON, MAY 30.—Diamond importers have scored a victory before the senate finance subcommittee in charge of the sundries schedule of the tariff bill, the committee having decided upon a reduction in the proposed Underwood rate of 20 per cent ad valorem on cut diamonds. The present ten per cent rate may be restored but it seems more probable that a 15 per cent rate eventually will be determined upon.

Members of the diamond trade tariff league of New York had declared that a twenty per cent duty would force dealers to buy diamonds from smugglers, despite their unwillingness to do so and that in many cases they would buy smuggled goods unknowingly. Customs officials were inclined to verify this service and informed the members of the committee that they would be opposed to so high a rate. Upon the information the subcommittee composed of Senators Johnson, Hoke Smith and Hughes, decided to change the rate in the report to the full committee which will be made next week.

To Be Handled by Sugar Committee.

Senator Overman, acting chairman of the senate judiciary committee, announced today that the "lobby resolution" adopted by the senate last night would be taken up tomorrow by the entire committee and that the investigations authorized probably would be turned over to a subcommittee of five.

Sensors Reed and Cummins are almost certain to be two of the investigators. The subcommittee probably will not get down to work until Tuesday, but it is expected to push the investigation. The resolution requires a report to the senate in ten days but there is little doubt that an extension of time would be granted if asked.

ITALIANS AND GREEKS FEAR RIOTING IN COUNCIL BLUFFS

Italians Leave City, Going Across the River to Omaha and to Other Cities.

Council Bluffs, Ia., May 30.—Police were hurried to Fortieth street and Second Avenue tonight to break up a mob that had gathered, with the view to securing the possession of Fred Guidice, known also as Henry Wiley held for the murder of Howard Jones on last Tuesday night.

The police learned late tonight that an attempt would be made to drive all Italians and Greeks from the city and tonight's gathering is believed to have had that result in view. Three arrests were made early in the evening of young men thought to have been among the active participants in last night's attempt to lynch Guidice. All are laborers.

There was an exodus of Italians from the city during the day, many going across the river to Omaha and others taking trains for other cities.

The Greek vice-consul at Omaha, today took cognizance of the damage done by mob last night to business places owned by Greeks and said he would lodge a complaint at once with the state department. Two carloads of South Omaha packing house men are said to have arrived this evening.

Four years ago an attack was made on the Greek quarter in South Omaha and several persons were shot and a number injured. The Dodge light guards are at their armory, ready to act should the governor decide that it is necessary.

Disperse Crowds.

The police succeeded in partially dispersing the crowds before they could form an organization but small parties were on the streets far into the night. These were kept well scattered and late tonight it was believed danger of further mob violence had been overcome.

BODY REINTERRED.

Lexington, Va., May 30.—A committee of the Virginia assembly arrived here to day from Cumberland Island, Ga., bringing a flag draped casket containing the remains of General "Lighthorse" Harry Lee of revolutionary fame. Escorted by cadets from the Virginia military institute and students from Washington and Lee University the casket was borne by cadet and student pallbearers to Lee Mausoleum. There, with impressive ceremonies, it was reinterred in the crypt beside the body of the revolutionary soldier's distinguished son, General Robert E. Lee.

FORTY PEOPLE HURLED DOWN EMBANKMENT

TALLYHO PLUNGED TO BOTTOM OF FIFTY FOOT CLIFF

Party of Young Couples Were Returning to Denver After Dark When Horses Became Frightened on Narrow Trail and Plunged Over Cliff.

DENVER, COLO., MAY 30.—A tallyho in which forty persons were riding was hurled down a fifty foot embankment at Mount Morrison park near here late tonight. Thirty persons are reported injured, many seriously.

The party had left Denver early to spend Memorial Day fishing. It was composed of two tallyhos laden with young couples. On the return trip and after dark while the leading tallyho was entering a narrow trail along the cliff side of Turkey Creek another conveyance attempted to pass. The tallyho horses becoming frightened, plunged the tallyho down to the bottom of the cliff.

Members of the party in the second tallyho hastened to Mount Morrison for assistance and all the physicians available were taken from the little resort town to the scene of accident. Calls for ambulances were hurriedly sent into Denver and all the motor ambulances which could be found late tonight were hurried to the rescue.

It is not known as yet if any of the party was killed, but reports are positive that many of them are severely injured.

MAINE MONUMENT DEDICATED IN NEW YORK

Military Parade Preceded the Ceremonies at the Monument—Warships Give Salute of 252 Guns.

New York, May 30.—In memory of the two hundred and sixty-seven officers and men who were lost with the battleship Maine in Havana harbor fifteen years ago, the national Maine monument was dedicated here today. From a dozen American warships, units of the Atlantic fleet at anchor in the Hudson river, a salute of 252 guns echoed from the Palisades as the veil was swept aside that revealed the country's tribute—a pyramid, forty feet high, that stands in Central park, overlooking Columbus circle.

Noted citizens spoke words of praise for the dead heroes of the war with Spain and for those who live, former President Taft, the secretary of navy, the governors of Maine and New York, representatives of the Cuban republic and others, took part in the exercises. A military parade along Fifth avenue preceded the ceremonies at the monument. Headed by Rear-admiral Winslow, the grand marshal, 5,000 soldiers and sailors, including the veterans of two wars, marched through a lane formed by many thousands of holiday sight-seers. American infantry artillery, navy yard marines, bluejackets from the battleships, state militia, cavalry, Civil and Spanish war veterans, Cuban troops and sailors from Cuba, the island republic's naval representatives and others were in the line of march.

General James Grant Wilson, who presided at the dedication, read a letter from President Wilson. One from President Wilson was laid by Rev. John P. Childwick, chaplain of the Maine when the explosion occurred.

DISCUSS ADVISABILITY OF HOLDING NIGHT SESSIONS

Speaker McKinley and Gov. Dunne in Conference in Chicago.

Chicago, May 30.—At a conference today between Governor Dunne and Speaker McKinley, the advisability of holding night sessions of the legislature during the remainder of the session was discussed. The governor said that he was preparing a list of administration measures in the order of their importance and that he would furnish the speaker with the list on Tuesday. He expressed himself as strongly in favor of night sessions.

Another test on the initiative and referendum is wanted by the governor. This is expected to come next week. Governor Dunne asked the speaker to call a meeting of the rules committee for Tuesday to map out a program to be followed during the closing days.

WOMAN DIES OF INJURIES.

Denver, Colo., May 30.—Mrs. Corine Glazier of Chicago to day died from injuries received last night when she was knocked down and dragged by a speeding automobile. ## OFFICERS UNABLE TO LOCATE BANDITS

ROBBERS WHO ATTACKED PAY CREW OF ZINC CO. HARD TO FIND

Dogs Lead Posse to River Where Bandits Had Crossed in Row Boat—Search Was Then Taken Up in Motor Boats But no Arrest Has Yet Been Made.

LASALLE, ILL., MAY 30.—Twenty-five men, headed by Sheriff John G. Mische and police of LaSalle, Peru and Portland, traveled forty-five miles today in automobiles, motor boats and on foot in an effort to run down the four bandits who attacked the pay crew of the Illinois Zinc company south of here yesterday.

Bloodhounds arrived from Springfield this morning and hunt has been pursued through surrounding country all day. The dogs caught a scent from clothing found in fields at the scene of the hold-up and pursued a course directly north to the bank of flooded bottom lands. The trail led down steep hills and broken brush and loose earth, showing where the fleeing bandits had slid over a fifteen foot ledge.

The dogs came to a halt at the edge of the water where four men had chased William Morris, a fisherman, from a boat yesterday afternoon. Search was then taken up in motor boats to Illinois and Michigan canal and carried the posse into Utica, five miles east. Reports from the Kinder farm, three miles north-east of LaSalle, said men tallying with the descriptions of two of the bandits had passed through there on foot.

The robbers shed clothing as they fled through a pasture and today hunting trousers were found in addition to the two coats, two derby hats, a shotgun and a revolver and a pair of pliers found last night.

The second death as a result of the bandits' attack came this morning when Elmer West of Peru died at St. Mary's hospital in LaSalle.

West was in the rig which carried the money and the first volley of shot fired by the robbers struck him in the head, face and chest. He survived an ambulance trip to the hospital and underwent an operation, but twelve hours after leaving the table he expired. West was noted in northern Illinois as a semi-professional baseball player and games of the Peru Stars, with whom he played, are cancelled for a week. Hundreds of people today lined the bluff at the edge of the city to watch the posse at work along the river and canal.

Believe Bandits Boarded Train.

Bloodhounds picked up the trail of bandits along Vermillion river tonight and followed the scent for three miles, finally losing it on a switch track of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad.

The trail was found near Cave-in-Rock and led through a house in Jonesville, to the mouth of the LaSalle county carbon coal shaft, then out through Deer Park road and along the tracks.

Officials believe the bandits boarded a train at the switch track. The search will be resumed tomorrow.

EIGHT MONTHS WAR BETWEEN TURKEY AND BALKANS OVER

"Peace of London" is Signed in St. James Palace—Sir Edward Grey Presides.

London, May 30.—The eight months war between Turkey and the allied Balkan state is ended. The "peace of London" was signed today in the picture gallery of St. James palace.

Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary presided over the formalities. The following peace delegates signed the preliminary treaty.

Osman Nizami Pasha for Turkey; Dr. Daneff for Bulgaria; Stjepan Novakovich for Serbia; Stephanos Skoulodis for Greece and M. Popovitch for Montenegro.

A dramatic feature of the historic occasion M. Popovitch's expression of keen disappointment that Montenegro had "been despoiled of her just share of the spoils of a triumphant war" and the hope that "England which took the lead in the spoliation" would take every step to compensate Montenegro for her sacrifice.

The actual ceremony was brief. The delegates agreed to meet on Monday to consider the advisability of an eventual annexed protocol.

NATIONS FAVORABLE TO BRYAN PEACE PLAN

Eight Nations Have Responded Favorably to Plan Recently Submitted

ASK FURTHER DETAILS

Countries Replying Ask That Suggestions Be Submitted in Regard to Details

RECEIVED NO ADVERSE REPLY

WASHINGTON, MAY 30.—Secretary Bryan signaled the day commemorative of the country's hero dead by announcing that eight nations have responded favorably to his peace plan, asking that suggestions be submitted in regard to details. The nations in the order in which they have accepted are Italy, Great Britain, France, Brazil, Sweden, Norway, Peru and Russia.

Secretary Bryan said that no nation to whom his peace plan was submitted had replied adversely, although some had asked more time for consideration. To each of the governments expressing a willingness to enter into the peace agreement, a tentative statement has been submitted embodying details suggested by the president. The secretary, pointing out that this statement was submitted for consideration with no intention of insistence upon any particular detail, declined to make public its contents.

Secretary Bryan's Statement.

Mr. Bryan discussed the progress of his plan in the following statement:

"It will be remembered that about a month ago a plan was, by the president's direction, submitted to all the governments having representatives here, the plan being in substance as follows:

"First. That the United States is prepared to enter into an agreement with each and every country severally providing for the investigation of all disputes of every character and nature by an international commission, the contracting parties agreeing not to declare war or begin hostilities until such investigation is made and report submitted.

"Second. The investigation to be conducted as a matter of course upon the initiative of the commission without the formality of a request from either party.

"Third. The report to be submitted within a given time, the time to be agreed upon.

"Fourth. The parties to reserve the right to act independently on the subject matter in dispute after the report is submitted. The composition of the committee was a matter of detail to be agreed upon by the contracting parties; the time, also, in which the report should be submitted was a matter of detail to be agreed upon by the contracting parties.

"Eight nations have up to this time responded favorably to the principle and asking that suggestions be submitted in regard to the details, others replying that the proposition is received sympathetically and expressing a willingness to consider details.

"The nations in the order in which they have accepted are: Italy, Great Britain, France, Brazil, Sweden, Norway, Peru and Russia."

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in dry ventilated factories—or those who are shut up indoors in winter with a coal stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic oxide gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, is anemic; people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES AT MURRAYVILLE

The Rev. Walter E. Spoonst of This City Gives Address On Meaning of the Day—Many Attend From Woodson.

Memorial day exercises were held in the M. E. church at Murrayville at 1:30 Friday afternoon when the old soldiers and friends adjourned to the cemetery to decorate the graves. A great many old soldiers were present from Woodson as well as a few from Jacksonville. The meaning of Memorial day was the theme of the address by the Rev. W. E. Spoonst. A number of songs were sung by a selected choir composed of T. Beadles, Miss Iva Short, Miss Mildred Wright, Miss Stella Cunningham, J. H. Dial, John Wilds and Mrs. H. C. Million, pianist. The flowers were strewn on the graves by a company of the young children of the village.

"What meaneth this day to the old soldier and to the country for which he struggled?" was the question asked and answered by Rev. Mr. Spoonst in the first part of his address. He said that the day brought to the minds of all the honor due the brave men who defended the country, who risked all that this nation might live and wax great.

We learn from the observance of this day the duty of Christian patriotism. Patriotism is more than love of country. It implies the love of all the institutions that go to make the nation a better place in which to live.

Mr. Spoonst contrasted the position of the north and south and gave numerous illustrations of their reconciliation. Whatever the war with Spain may have cost it was worth while by reason of the part it played in burying sectional and partisan enmities.

Cookery Points

Honey and Junket.

Honey Gingerbread.—Put into a basin a cupful of honey and half a cupful of butter and melt it before the fire without stirring. Put into an enameled saucepan with half a cupful of sour milk (not buttermilk), two eggs beaten separately and half a teaspoonful each of ginger and cinnamon. Mix well together till thick. Pour into a greased square tin and bake sharply.

Honey Trifle.—Heat together half a cupful of milk and half a cupful of honey. Cut into cubes two sponge cakes and dip into the mixture; then pile into a dish. Make a custard with two eggs, half a pint of milk and a cupful of honey. Pour the custard over the cakes, decorate with preserved fruit as preferred and serve either hot or cold.

Honey Mousse.—Beat separately the yolks of two eggs and mix with a cupful of honey. Heat gently over gas until the mixture is thick. Do not boil. Let it cool; then stir in the whipped whites of two eggs. Add half a pint of whipped cream and mix carefully. Put into a mold and set on ice to freeze.

Honey Fudge.—Boil together a cupful each of sugar and milk until it forms a soft ball if tested in cold water. Add a cupful of honey and boil until the mixture can be tested as before. Then add a nut of butter and a tablespoonful of vinegar. Mix all together and pour into shallow tins to cool.

Quite a variety of appetizing yet most nourishing dishes can be evolved with the aid of junket tablets.

Chocolate Junket.—Dissolve half a cupful of sugar in a quart of lukewarm milk. Melt two squares of chocolate, add half a cupful of warm milk and bring to the boil. Remove from the fire immediately and add remainder of the milk, quarter teaspoonful of vanilla and one dissolved junket tablet. Stir well and pour into small fancy cups to set. Now take half a cupful of thick cream, add a few spoonfuls of sweetened milk and beat till quite stiff. Beat the white of one egg till you can cut it and add slowly to the beaten cream. Pour the cream mixture over the junket just before serving and decorate with crystallized cherries.

Junket With Coffee Flavour.—Pour half a pint of boiling water over two ounces of coffee. Take a quart of milk sweetened to taste; add the clear boiling coffee, which should make it lukewarm. Add one junket tablet, stir well and pour into a glass dish. Serve with whipped cream on the top.

Cocoanut Junket.—Sometimes a little junket is left over and is usually wasted. Here is a nice way of using it: One cupful of cocoanut, one cupful of curd from which the whey has been poured, one cupful of cream, two yolks of eggs and one cupful of sugar. Place all in a saucepan on the fire and stir till thick; then pour into a buttered pie dish and bake slowly for ten minutes.

Fruit Sandwiches.

Fruit sandwiches are more generally used than they used to be and are so delicious that they ought to form a part of every sandwich repast. They satisfy a natural craving for sweets and are more wholesome and more easily made than cakes or candies.

Dates can be made into many savory pastes for sandwich filling. Make the foundation by stoning the dates and running them through the meat chopper. To a pound of this paste add the juice of an orange and the pulp that squeezes out with it, rub it smooth and spread between buttered bread. To a half cupful of dates add a quarter cupful of chopped English walnut meats and a teaspoonful of lemon juice and spread between buttered bread.

Short Cuts.

A quick way to warm plates in cold weather is to dip them in hot water. Dry in a dish rack or with a towel. Invert the handles of knives, forks and spoons in a pitcher of hot water to warm them.

When covers lose the original knobs replace them with others that can be bought for 10 cents per dozen at a novelty store.

The flavor of fish is greatly improved if fried in fat saved from a former frying.

Quince Souffle.

Stew three or four quinces soft. Rub through a colander and sweeten. Pour into a glass dish and cover with a custard made with one pint of milk, three egg yolks and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Whip the whites of eggs light with three tablespoonfuls of sugar and heap on top.

Coffee Cake.

Take half a cupful of butter, a cupful of sugar, two eggs, half a cupful of molasses, half a cupful of cold coffee, two cupfuls of flour, half a teaspoonful of soda, a quarter of a teaspoonful each of cloves and mace and one teaspoonful of cinnamon. Bake in a long bar tin.

Olive and Egg Sandwiches.

Stone and chop twelve large olives and four finely chopped hard boiled eggs and enough melted butter to make a paste. Season with pepper and salt, spread on thin slices of bread from which the crust has been removed and press firmly together in pairs.

SPRING FESTIVAL CONCERT BY ILLINOIS COLLEGE TALENT

Conservatory Orchestra and College Chorus Give Superb Musical Program At Westminster Church.

The Illinois college chorus and the Conservatory orchestra gave their annual spring concert last evening in Westminster church. It was attended by an audience of good size and much appreciation. Every number on the varied program was enthusiastically received, and the applause was merited.

The first number was given by the orchestra, under Mr. Kritek and it was very gratifying to see the splendid work of which these student players are capable in so difficult a piece as the Beethoven Symphony. Mr. Kritek had them well under control, and they responded to all his indications with surprising accuracy and finish. The second movement was especially effective and made more so by the organ part—arranged by Mr. J. Philip Read, which Miss Jerauld gave with her usual skill.

In the cantata by Parry "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" the chorus showed its thorough rehearsing and sang with an enthusiasm and lightness that were remarkable. The work is quite different from "The Tale of Old Japan," given at the midwinter concert, being of somewhat lighter character and more difficult, because of its greater rapidity of movement. The role of the Piper was well interpreted by Mr. Brewster, of Chicago, who is apparently an artist of varied experience. His enunciation is well high perfect, and he manages his voice, a tenor of excellent quality and remarkable evenness, with ease and sureness, interpreting with real musicianly feeling.

Mr. Garrett revealed a fine baritone voice, well suited to the part of the mayor, whose phrases he delivered with unctious and appropriate energy. His voice is a beautiful one, and his future should certainly be bright, for he sings not only with good tone but with musical intelligence.

In their second number the orchestra astonished their hearers even more by the breadth and richness of their tone and their quick response to every wave of Mr. Kritek's baton. This overture to Hansel & Gretel makes one understand the great popularity of the opera. It is full of melody and its harmonic structure is rich and wonderfully worked out. Miss Jerauld's work at the organ was again worthy of great praise.

In the "Savonara," by Cadman the voices of Mrs. Brown and Mr. Brewster blended perfectly, greatly beautifying and enriching the piece, which is so often sung by one voice. Mrs. Brown's beautiful singing needs no introduction to a Jacksonville audience, for she has been for some years a great favorite among us. In this Japanese romance she revealed again those qualities which have endeared her to all lovers of music who have heard her—the sympathetic insight, the faithfulness to pitch, the deep feeling, which are called for in this composition. Mr. Brewster made an able partner, subduing his voice at the proper moments, then rising to the climaxes with satisfying fervor. Mr. Manger accompanied this number with great skill.

The "Galla" of Gounod, which was sung here a number of years ago, made a most stirring close to the concert. In it the chorus sang in a manner to bring out the impressiveness of the Gounod music, and Mrs. Brown outdid herself in the solo part, rousing the audience to great enthusiasm by her superb singing.

Miss Susan Brown accompanied this number, as also the "Pied Piper" and showed herself to be an accompanist of extraordinary talent and attainments. It is hardly to be wondered at that she won such success in Boston in this line of work. She plays with lovely tone and real understanding of the music that comes under her fingers.

The Conservatory may consider itself fortunate to have a conductor who wields as sure a stick as does Mr. French and who evidently knows as intimately the work which he directs.

The following are members of Illinois college chorus:

Conductor—Mr. Howard D. French.

APPRAISING HUMAN LIFE.

Cash Value of a Man as Computed by Legal Decisions.

That "human life is cheap" would appear from a study undertaken by a well known lawyer of the legal decisions handed down in this country with reference to the "cash value" of a man.

It is estimated that at ten years of age a boy of the laboring class is worth $2,061.42; at fifteen, $4,203.46;
at twenty-five, $5,488.03, from which time the decline is steady, a man of seventy, by this legal decision scale, rating at only $17.13! By the same practical method of computation one eye is worth $5,000; one leg, $15,000;
two legs, $25,000; one arm, $10,000;
one hand, $6,000; one finger, $1,500;
and permanent disability, $25,000. This,
it is pointed out, is merely an average
as far as decisions have been examined.

It should be added that the estimates of the value of a man's life are based upon an idea not of his value to himself, but of his value to the community. The figures in individual cases would vary greatly with reference to the fact whether or not the person's death caused hardship to others who were dependent upon him.

The value of a man to himself is, it is further pointed out, unimportant
after he is dead from a legal point of view. His value to society at large cannot be considered in a cash estimate since that kind of value depends upon other than physical resources.
His value to those who look to him for support can alone be estimated on the material side.—New York Press.

INEQUALITIES OF MIND.

Widely Varying Mentalities Are Essential to Society.

The inequalities of mind are numerous and various as the inequalities of matter. One mind sports with worlds, another with atoms. One man perches himself on Mount Chimborazo and communes with the stars; another delves into the earth in search of hidden treasures and buries himself in mines and minerals. One man moves along with the tardiness of the ox in the drudgery of life; another ascends
in a balloon and soars above the clouds.
Here we find a Newton measuring the comet's path, a Franklin stealing fire from heaven, a Columbus in search of a new world, and there a sportsman with his hounds in quest of a fox. One delights in his reveling and song, in riotous living and the giddy dance, another in locking up his golden pelf in an iron chest.

Talk we, then, of minds equally endowed by nature or improved by art!
No such minds ever composed any community. Varieties, all manner of varieties, are essential to society. The world needs the rich and the poor, the young and the aged, the learned and the unlearned, the healthy and the infirm, the cheerful and the melancholic.
These call forth all our energies, open channels for all the social virtues, lay
the basis of our various responsibilities and constitute much of the happiness of this life. They furnish opportunities for communicating and receiving benefits.—Alexander Campbell's
"Mind the Master of Force."

Rescued the "Trash."

One of the most highly prized manuscripts of recent times was rescued
just in time from a cupboard in a house where the poet had for some time lived as a bachelor. This was the manuscript of "In Memoriam,"
and it was to the poet himself that the recovery was due, for he remembered that the book wherein he had transcribed the original draft had been hastily thrust into the cupboard, where Tennyson also had been accustomed to keep his pickles and jams. When the friends sent by the poet to recover
the manuscript arrived on the scene
the contents of the cupboard had been removed by the landlady, who was just then engaged in her task of housecleaning and tartly advised her visitors that they had come none too soon, inasmuch as she would that day have burnt all the "trash" she had found.—
Boston Post.

Echo Verses.

Echo verses were sometimes used effectively for epigrams and squibs.
Thus a critic once wrote:
I'd fain praise your poem. But, tell me,
how is it
When I cry out "Exquisite!" echo cries
"Quiz it!"

And when in 1831 Paganini was drawing crowds to the opera house at extravagant prices the Times printed
the following lines:

What are they who pay three guineas
To hear a tune of Paganini's?
Echo—Pack of ninnies!

—London Graphic.

Untimely Jest.

"Motoring is all well enough," said Jorjocks as Brinley's car sank into the mud up above the hubs, "but there is such a thing as running it into the ground."

"Don't waste your wit out here in the cold, Jorjocks," retorted Brinley. "Go hire a haul. We need it."—Harper's Weekly.

Before and After.

"Before marriage I used to sit up until midnight wishing he would go home."

"Yes?"

"Yes, and since we are married I sit

would come home."—Houston Post.

MARKED SPOT WHERE GEN. GRANT CAMPED

IMPOSING EXERCISES WERE HELD AT NAPLES.

Historical Place Identified With Life
of Great American Leader in Civil War is Remembered—Address by Mr. Ensley Moore of This City.

Rev. A. J. Green of Bluffs in connection with a committee of citizens of Naples found two old boulders and arranged to have them placed on the site of Col. U. S. Grant's camp with the 21st Regt. of Ill. Vols., July 1861. Special exercises were held at the "old camp ground" overlooking a beautiful view of the Illinois river Friday.

The Naples committee, with Rev.
B. D. Mallinson of the M. E. church
arranged for good music by a chorus of ladies and had a platform decorated with the Union colors for the speakers, besides arranging for fine entertainment.

The exercises were opened by singing "America" and the invocation
by Rev. Coott Peak of Exeter. The "Star Spangled Banner" was then sung and Mr. Mallinson made remarks introducing the occasion and called upon the Rev. W. M. Hailey of Barry to make an address.

Mr. Hailey, who had formerly lived in Naples, made a splendid talk,
referring especially to the memorial of our heroic dead. He had to have a text he said, which was aptly chosen from Joshua 6-4-6: "And he spoke unto the children of Israel, saying when your children shall ask
their father in time to come saying, what mean these stones? Then shall yet let your children know." Then the speaker stated how and why the boulders had been chosen and placed
to mark this historic camp site.
Rev. Mr. Green then asked all present who had seen Grant and his soldiers to write their names in a registry to be deposited at the court house in Winchester. He also called for a collection to defray expenses of the occasion.

Then Dr. Feeman of Westminster, Md., a native of Illinois, was introduced and spoke fittingly and well
on "Grant as a Soldier."
Mr. Ensley Moore of Jacksonville followed with the following introductory remarks, after which he read from his story of "Grant's first March" the part referring especially to Scott county and Naples.

Grant's Start to the War.
"Pardon me, in beginning the story which distinguishes this spot,
and is the special feature here of this day, if I say some personal things referring to Naples.

"Few people of this generation can realize the importance and value of a river town, before the war, to the surrounding country.

"Naples was one of the most prominent towns on the beautiful Illinois
river, when I could first notice events and remember, and I then lived in Perry, eight miles west of here. Locomotives and cars are of interest to the minds of growing boys, but they had small attractiveness compared with the splendid boats which walked the waters like a thing of life, and made Naples their landing place, fifty or sixty years ago.

"It was my greatest local delight
to come down to the river with father—Joshua Moore—from Perry,
and I knew by sight, or as a child
might, the leading men of this place for many years. I knew Frederick Collins, who built the 'big brick'
house on the hill, and Peter D. Critzer who lived there afterwards, and ran the ferry and a store. I knew old and young Royal Moores, and Jacob Ensminger, and John H. Carver and Dr. Mauck and Thomas Holloway and Mr. Quinlin at the depot, and old man Phillips who kept the hotel and that fine old Irish gentleman John McCluskey who kept the other hotel and the Keeners and Benjamin Green 'under the bluff',
and others, men and women and children. It is a long time I have known the old town, and it has always had a warm place in my heart.

But we are met to think of the days when the 21st Regiment of Illinois Volunteer Infantry under command of Colonel Ulysses S. Grant was encamped upon this historic spot. I cannot too heartily thank those who have done me the honor of inviting me to take part in this Memorial Day remembrance of the days of '61 and of the heroes who carried the Star Spangled banner to victory.

I shall now briefly sketch Grant's first march to the war, up to his entrance into Scott county, and more full refer to his actions from Exeter
to Naples and over to Gardner's in Pike county and his return to Naples and taking cars from here to Quincy. For it was at Naples that the march, as such ended.

The 21st regiment was organized at Mattoon, Coles county, and mustered into service by Capt. U. S.
Grant in May 1861; the regiment
being soon brought to Springfield, under its first colonel. He did not prove a success and on June 15th, 1861 Capt. Grant was appointed Colonel by that Greatest War Governor, Richard Yates.

Colonel Grant decided he could not better get his regiment to the field
than Missouri, than, march the command to Quincy and from there cross into Missouri.

So, on the afternoon of July 3,
1861, the 21st marched out of Camp
Yates at Springfield and proceeded about eight miles on the Jacksonville road to an encampment for the night about north of Curran station.
The 4th of July was spent in marching to a point about nine miles east of Jacksonville on the farm of Mr.
Corrington. July 5th the regiment passed through Jacksonville in the forenoon and " bivouaced " for dinner at the Morgan county Fair Grounds, just west of the School for the Deaf. As the soldiers passed our house on West State street I watched them go by and for the first time saw the coming here, Grant,
That afternoon the troops took their

About three years ago, I read the

From this point I will read from

At the conclusion of Mr. Moore's

PIRATES WIN PITCHERS DUEL FROM CUBS 2 TO 1

REULBACH AND CAMNITZ OPPOS-ING SLAB ARTISTS.

Sensational Catches by Wilson and a One-handed Grab by Booe at Expense of Zimmerman Helped Pittsburgh—Cub Run Comes in Ninth.

PITTSBURGH, MAY 30.—The afternoon game was postponed today on account of rain. Pittsburgh took the morning game from Chicago in a sensational pitchers' duel between Reulbach and Camnitz. Singles by Booe and Carey and Wagner's out gave Pittsburgh a run in the first and they added another in the sixth on a single and Viox's two bagger. Three of the six hits off Camnitz were for extra bases but sensational catches by Wilson and a phenomenal one-hand grab by Booe at the expense of Zimmerman, helped Pittsburgh.

Chicago got its one run in the ninth when Clymer singled and Bridwell walked. Bresnahan forced Bridwell and Mitchell running for Bresnahan then worked the double steal with Clymer, the latter scoring. The score:

Tigers Used Five Pitchers in Attempt to Check Slugging of Callahan But They All Looked Alike to the Sox.

Chicago, May 30.—Chicago broke even with Detroit today by winning the afternoon game 9 to 1 and losing the morning game 2 to 3. Cicotte was in fine form and the visitors were unable to do anything to him.

The visitors used five pitchers in an attempt to check the slugging of the locals but all looked alike to Callahan's men who bunched hits.

Collins lead in the hitting, getting four hits in as many times at bat. Cobb was struck out twice today when a hit was needed. Score:

WILL NOT GO TO TOLEDO.

ON THE SIDELINES.

A jolt for Philadelphia, but the Quakers are still in the lead by a comfortable margin. It may be that the Giants are now due for a spurt that will bring them to front with a rush. It is high time.

The general thing was an even break all around except at New York and the Athletic-Yankee duel. The later was expected. The Highlanders are no match for Mack's men.

The relative standing remains about the same. The Quakers can drop this series to the Giants and still be in the lead as the Dodgers have no chance of overtaking them. Boston is not to be despised now as an opponent and Dahlin will have to put his best foot forward if he wants to get an even break.

Ed Reulbach has no doubt heard the news that waivers were being asked on him and it had the effect of making him exert himself a bit harder. Bresnahan seems to get better work out of the big fellow than Archer. It might not be a bad idea to keep these two paired for a while and see what luck comes of it. For despite all this talk about inside ball the element of luck plays considerable figure in our great game. Ask any old timer.

Luther McCarty, the fighter, left an estate of thirty thousand dollars. The fight game brings in nearly as much as the base ball business but not quite.

In case of war why not hire Walter Johnson as a coast defender inquires the Literary Digest.

Gues Joe Tinker feels a little better this morning. To be the man to bat in the winning run before a holiday crowd is glory enough for one day. Well Joe has had a rocky road to travel so far and deserves a bouquet now and then. Wish he were near enough so that we could hand him a real one.

Tesreau looked mighty good in that game he pitched and Burns is getting back into the hitting form he displayed at the start of the season. A good thing for McGraw.

Johnson wasn't there yesterday. He had a hard job of it. His teammates failed to hit which is the reason why his second defeat was registered. The Washington line up looks strong. And so does that of the Reds. Look them over. Wonder who this new comer Gedeon is? Will have to look him up in the games who's who.

Walter is not a good mud horse. Perhaps also his mascot President Wilson was unable to be present. As we remember the president is usually the central figure at the big decoration day exercises at Arlington.

The decoration games mark the first stage of the journey. From now on there will be a tightening of the lines until the July 4th games are registered. That past comes the settling down for the long race home.

The Chicago-Pittsburgh contest was the game of the day. Just read the details and see. And take note than out young friend Booe is turning loose these warm days. If he doesn't make one of the greatest players the game ever knew we will imitate Mr. Grimwig.

Warrenville, O.—"I have felt the effects of blood poisoning for eighteen years. I was never without some eruptions on my body. The terrible itching caused me much suffering and discomfort, while the rubbing and scratching made it worse."

My face was terribly red and sore, and felt as if my skin was on fire. At last I tried a sample of Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and I found them so cool, soothing and healing that I got some Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Resolvent. ## NATION'S HEROES ARE REMEMBERED

REPRESENTATIVE HEFLIN MAKES ADDRESS ON GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD.

Says Question of the Right of the State to Secede and the Right of the Union to Prevent it Could Only Be Settled By the Arbitrament of the Sword.

Gettysburg, Pa., May 30.—Standing on historic Gettysburg battlefield and bringing "a message of a reunited country," Representative Thomas Hefflin of Alabama today paid eloquent tribute to the heroism of the men who wore the blue and the gray. His was the first address ever delivered by a southerner at Gettysburg Memorial day exercises.

"Our colonial fathers from north, south and east and west," Mr. Hefflin said, "fought together when they brought this republic into being, defended it together in the war of 1812, and triumphed together when they carried the stars and stripes into the heritage of the Montezumas. The final and crucial test of the republic's strength and durability was the combat on the field of battle in the war between the states."

He added that the question of the right of the state to secede and the right of the union to prevent it, the status of rights and relationship between state and federal government, "could not be determined in the councils of peace; it had to be settled by the arbitrament of the sword."

"The republic once abounding with conflicting opinions as to state and federal rights and powers," he continued, "is today the harmonious household of several states, the home of a brave and happy people, here we bow with solemn reverence in honor of our nation's dead and pay to their blessed memory the tribute of our united love."

"Heroism never had truer representatives than those who made this battlefield immortal. Here the soldier in blue and the soldier in gray read in each other's eyes courage born of convictions, devoted to principle, a willingness to do and die for what they believed was right. Here union and confederate soldiers by their daring sacrifice and heroism challenged the admiration of the world. Here northern valor drew up in battle line the bravest of her brave, the noblest specimens of her patriotic manhood and southern chivalry marshalled the noblest types of her splendid citizenship."

"Here the brave union soldier checked the march of the hitherto irresistible confederate soldier. Here in the red glare of destructive battle fire, two mighty lessons were taught; one that the union should be preserved, and the other that the union should be ever mindful and considerate of the rights of the states. So the soldiers of the two armies who baptized this soil with their blood did not die in vain; they started the work of cementing the bonds of an everlasting union."

"I bring to you a message of good will and fellowship from the people of the south. As an evidence of our recognition and appreciation of the valor and heroism of both union and confederate soldiers, and as a token of the spirit of fraternal love now permeating the hearts of our people, I bring you floral offerings from the flower gardens of Dixie, one for the grave of the soldier in blue and the other for the grave of the soldier in gray. The sublime valor of the heroes of both armies is the priceless heritage of all."

Of the reunion in July of survivors of the two armies at Gettysburg, Mr. Hefflin said, "What a glorious reunion that will be. The angels will smile upon that gathering and the God of our fathers will bless and approve it."

"Let the living join hands and hearts about a common center, for the good of the republic," he concluded. "Let north, south, east, west, all work together for the good of all. Here on this battlefield incarnadined with the blood of patriots north and patriots south, let us, in the language of Lincoln, resolve that this government shall not perish from the earth."

HAS ALEXANDER FOUND THE SAME

The Answer is Found in the Straight-forward Statement of an Alexander Resident.

We have been reading week after week in the local press of Jacksonville citizens who have been rid of distressing kidney and bladder troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills, and we have often wondered whether the same high opinion of this medicine is to be found in our neighboring towns. This frank and earnest statement by a well-known and respected resident of Alexander will set this doubt at rest.

John William Aulabaugh, farmer Alexander, Ill., says: "About two years ago I took several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and will say that they did me more good than all the doctors I had experimented with. It has been bothering very little with my back since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

ELIMINATION CONTESTS HELD AT CAMBRIDGE

Many Student Athletes Qualify For Today's Meet—Believe Honors Lie Between Cornell and Pennsylvania.

Cambridge, Mass., May 30.—Out of the preliminary stage of the annual inter-collegiate track and field championships which were begun in the Harvard stadium today there emerged four score of student athletes qualified to participate in the semi-final and final events of tomorrow.

Although the competition during the afternoon was keen it was not productive of any record performances.

A fluky wind was the cause generally assigned. In the fight for qualification, Harvard was unexpectedly the leader with twelve men. Cornell, with Pennsylvania, had been regarded as the principal contender for the championship, placed ten athletes while Pennsylvania will carry only 8 men into tomorrow's events.

Michigan, Yale and Dartmouth qualified nine men each. The number qualified by other colleges was: California 5; Syracuse 4; Columbia 3; Johns Hopkins 3; Princeton 3; Wesleyan 2; and Brown, Franklin and Marshall, Pennsylvania state, one each.

Pennsylvania's chances of success were not considered lessened by their failure to qualify more men today. The red and blue athletes had come to Cambridge spurred by the words of their veteran coach, Mike Murphy:

"It will kill me if you don't win, boys" and they were confident tonight of victory. Cornell followers expressed the belief that the trophy would go to Ithaca, while Harvard made no claims, most of the crimson qualifiers being regarded as having little prospect of prominent places in the finals.

Trial heats were held today except in the mile and two mile races. There were no reversals of form worthy of note.

WHISK BROOM II WINS METROPOLITAN HANDICAP

Illinois Men Fail to Hit With Bases Full—Millikin Gets Only Three Hits.

(Special to Journal) Decatur, Ill., May 30.—Ability to hit when hits meant runs gave Millikin the game with Illinois here today by a score of 5 to 0. The game was a pitchers' battle and with the bases full twice Illinois pinch hitters failed to deliver.

The score: R. H. E. Illinois . . . 0 4 3 Millikin . . . 5 3 3

Agricultural News Valuable To Farmers

FORAGE CROPS IN PORK PRODUCTION

DISCUSSION OF MOST ECONOMIC METHODS OF PRODUCTION

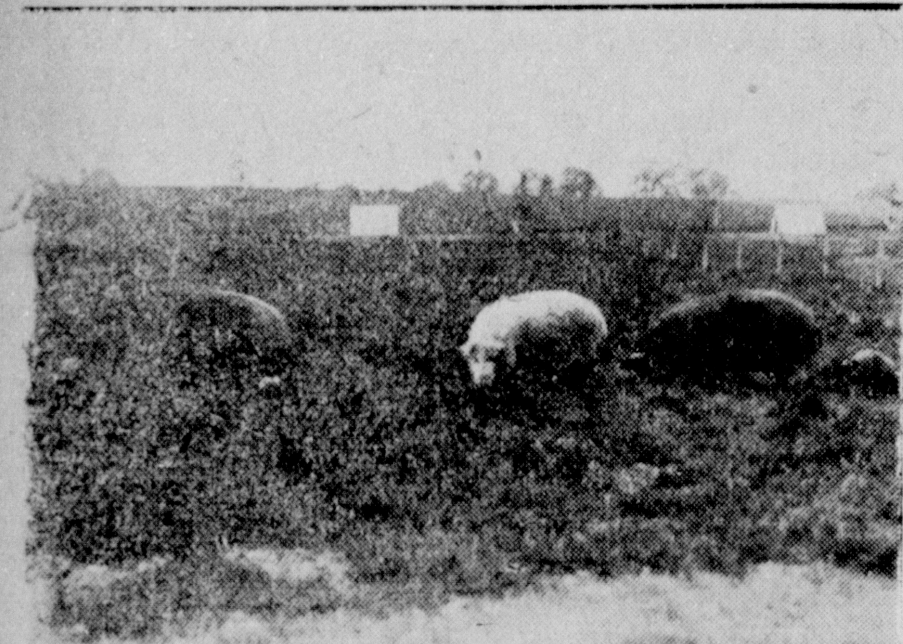

By Use of Forage Crops Profits of Hog Raising Industry Can Be Increased, Making Hogs Healthier and Doing Away with the Filthy Pig Pen.

For many years the main portion of the diet of the pig has been corn, and corn it will continue to be for years to come, but the corn and water diet is a thing of the past among feeders who have recognized the most economical methods of pork production. It is indeed logical that corn should be the main part of the

this method is the length of time required to get the pigs in marketable condition. On the other hand, large amounts of grain are conducive of more rapid gains, but they will require more concentrates per pound gain. Thus we find that the market value of feeds and the time which we wish to devote to the feeding of the animals will determine largely the amount of grain used in connection with pasture.

Considerable work has been done at different experiment stations to determine the values of various crops used in connection with corn. The following results were obtained at Missouri, (Circular No. 55, Missouri experiment station):

Crops per acre.	Grain per acre.	Value of forage per acre.
12	3.07	35.82
11	2.97	34.32
10	3.28	22.84
12.5	4.67	15.18

Swine Grazing in Blue Grass

daily diet throughout the corn belt, so the question resolves itself into a matter of supplementary feeds. If we had all the skim milk we wanted this would be rather easy to settle, but the scarcity of this food directs our attention elsewhere. What then shall we use? If all attempted to feed tankage as a supplement to corn, there would be such a demand for that commodity that the price would be lifted far above what the feeder could be justified in giving for it; the same would be true of any other by-products of various industries. As a very possible solution of the problem let us consider forage crops; something which we can grow on our own farms and of which we may control the supply so as to satisfy our individual demands. There are a few requirements which this, or any kind of crop must fill before it can possibly be of much value in this industry. (1) It must be palatable—something which the pig will eat readily, or it cannot constitute any considerable part of the diet. (2) It must be of such composition as to supply the proper ingredients needed by the animals for growth and development. (3) It should be a crop which will produce a large amount per acre and if possible have a persistent habit of growing. There are several indigenous to the corn belt, which possess such characteristics sufficiently to warrant their consideration as a possible substitute for corn as supplement to corn. Among the most common and useful of these are: Alfalfa, clover, rape, blue grass, cowpeas, soybeans, timothy, and rye. These have all been used profitably when handled judiciously.

It has been found in a large number of experiments that any forage crop at best is but little more than a maintenance feed for the pigs, so we must feed some grain in addition in order to make rapid and economical gains. Realizing this, there are two important questions which come up for our consideration in respect to the grain to be fed. (1) What kind of grain shall be fed, and (2), how much grain should be used in conjunction with the forage. The answer to the first question cannot be given intelligently unless the crop to be fed is taken into consideration. For instance, if we feed legumes or other grain feed which is high in protein content, we will not need to supply as much nitrogenous concentrate as we will if a carbonaceous forage is used. Thus we are looking for a supplemental feed or combination of feeds, such as corn six parts and oil meal one part, or corn thirteen parts and tankage one part. If we are feeding a very heavy grain ration, we may need to give some nitrogenous feed with corn, even with legumes, and more than the amount given above with non-nitrogenous forage. The kind of grain to feed is comparatively easy to settle in the corn belt, where the one grain is so popular, but the amount which is used most economically has not been settled definitely. It seems to be the general opinion of those who have experimented along this line that fractional rations are most economical, although they are frequently accompanied by smaller gains. The amount of forage and value of corn will be determining factors in the amount to feed in many cases; i. e., if there is an abundance of feed in the pasture and corn is high the amount of grain fed should be small or if feed is scant and corn cheap, or only moderately high, the grain should constitute the major portion of the ration. In general, it has been proved that the smaller the amount of grain fed the more economical will be the gains. However, the detracting factor about

The average amount of grain required per pound gain in the dry lot with a balanced ration was 5.11 pounds. With the four forage crops the average required was 3.49 pounds grain, or a saving of almost one-third by the use of forage crops. There are at least two other important factors to be taken into consideration in connection with forage crops. These are the small cost of labor on the land which is thus farmed and the fact that the crop is fed on the land and that in so doing a larger percentage of the manure is returned to the soil than could be with any other system of feeding.

When we are choosing the crops we wish to feed, we must consider first those which will do well in our particular locality and select from such ones those which will fit in well with corn as a supplement if we are looking towards the strictest economy. In feeding operations, of course, we must not lose sight of the effect of the particular crop on the land if grown several years in succession. It is also advisable where possible to use clovers and grasses rather than animals on account of the cost of labor and the effective-ness of the crop. If care is taken with the use and abuse of any of the crops mentioned, one can increase his profits in the hog raising industry, his hogs will be in a healthier condition and the filthy pig pen will be less in evidence than the past generations.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

1. What is meant by the litmus paper test? How can I use it to test my soil?

Answer: Litmus paper is used to detect the presence of acids and alkalies. In acids litmus paper turns red and in alkalies blue. By using litmus paper, it is a very easy matter to make a simple test with soil to determine whether it is acid or not. If blue litmus paper turns pink or red, when compacted in moist soil for 10 or 15 minutes, it is a good indication that the soil is probably acid. If the paper does not change color, the soil is probably free from acid. Blue litmus paper can usually be purchased at any drug store in small packets for five cents. This quantity is sufficient to test the soils on a large sized farm.

Acid soils do not make ideal soils for maximum crop production. This is especially true with legume crops, which in turn have an indirect effect upon all other crops following in the rotation. Legume crops, in order to make a successful growth, are more or less dependent upon bacterial activity in the soil, and they are also rather strong feeders upon the plant food element calcium. Acid soils do not permit a thrifty bacterial development in the soil and again such soils are not likely to contain a great deal of available calcium. Thus the litmus paper test gives the farmer some very important information concerning the soil.

Fortunately the farmer can easily correct soil acidity and furnish his soil with calcium, by making an application of two to five tons of ground limestone per acre. Marked results have been secured on a number of station experimental fields, located on acid soils, and by many Illinois farmers, by the use of ground limestone. For agricultural purposes, such limestone can be secured for 60 cents to $1.00 per ton. The Illinois freight rate is one-half cent per ton per mile. As limestone is produced

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE IN THE NEW BUILDING

DEPARTMENT HAS ADDITIONAL SPACE AND EQUIPMENT.

Two Changes Most Evident Have Been Made For Preparation For Community Life and For a Study of Some of the Problems of the Home.

For the third time the department of household science in the University of Illinois has taken into itself additional space and equipment. Each of these changes has meant an extension of the activities of the department; the introduction of new lines of work. Moreover, these material changes and improvements have been the tangible evidence of a deeper appreciation of the place and work of such a department in the field of education, and in the service which the university renders to the state. To household science is given the privilege not only of ennobling and beautifying the daily task, the common life and work, but also of interpreting this daily task in terms of science, art and economics.

The two changes most evident to the old students as shown by the plan and equipment, might be interpreted as provisions (1), for the entrance into community life; (2), for a study of some of the problems of the home. Equipment for the first is provided by a spacious dining room, occupying on the second floor the space between the two wings, giving a room 75 feet long and 25 feet wide, which has been equipped as a cafeteria. The color scheme is terra cotta for walls and mahogany for chairs, tables and doors. In connection with this are adequate service and storage rooms, and a well equipped institutional kitchen.

Dining Room-Cafeteria Plan

There is a growing recognition of the need of studying the art of right living, both for the individual and for the community, and some slight appreciation of the fact that much of the misery of the world is due to food, badly cooked and unattractively served. Most institutions of learning are seeking to provide not only academic training, but also healthful living conditions for their students. It is hoped that the new cafeteria may do its share in helping on this good work, and, at the same time, serve as a laboratory for those seeking instruction in lunch room management and the preparation of food in large quantities. Each year the call is stronger for the trained woman who can help to solve some of the problems of institutional management and community life.

Near to the institutional kitchen

In many sections of the state it is possible for most farmers to get a delivered price ranging from $1.00 to $2.00 per ton. More detailed information upon this subject may be found in circular 110 of the Illinois agricultural experiment station, which may be had upon application to the station.

11. Question: How can I best inoculate for alfalfa which I intend to seed this spring?

Answer: Perhaps the cheapest and most reliable method of soil inoculation for alfalfa is to use not less than 100 pounds of infected soil, scattered broadcast, per acre. Such infected soil can be secured from either old successful alfalfa fields or from patches of sweet clover, that are often growing abundantly along the roadside. Infected soil should be taken from about the roots of the plants that are growing luxuriantly. If it can be secured easily, more than 100 pounds might well be used per acre.

The best time to inoculate is before seeding, in the early morning or late afternoon, harrowing the ground immediately after. By doing this the bacteria are protected to a great extent from the killing effect of sunlight. By observing care in this work, the farmer can efficiently inoculate his soil at very little labor and expense.

are the diet kitchen and the class room, where, by lecture and practice, the principles of rational diet are taught and a foundation laid for the work of the practical dietitian, which is supplemented later by actual practice in the local hospital. Just beyond these is the electric kitchen, where the student has an opportunity to become familiar with this expensive but most attractive form of fuel. Neither dietetics nor electrical cooking are new forms of activity for the department, but the connection with the hospital whereby the students of dietetics get actual practice does mark an extension.

On the third floor one finds more adequate provisions than has hitherto been possible, for the study of some of the problems of the home. The care of the sick in the home is a subject of no small importance. The services of a trained nurse are frequently impossible for the country dweller, and often a luxury not to be afforded in either town or country. Moreover, a little knowledge of emergencies and of the principles of nursing often make the presence of a nurse unnecessary. If the woman in the home understands the proper care of wounds, cases of blood poisoning may be prevented. Provision for instruction and practice in the care of the patient with the appliances that have been found worth while in actual practice are to be installed in a room devoted to the principles and practices of the home care of the sick. In these days when the interest in public health is so keen, the department can contribute some training of its students along this line and so help to better living conditions. No one can estimate how much harm is done by those individuals who are ignorant of the simplest laws of public health and who, for that reason, are a real menace to the health of the whole community.

In contrast with the cafeteria on the second floor, which stands in a certain sense for the study of the problems of community life, can be found on the third floor an apartment

ON THE PROBLEM OF VOCATIONAL TRAINING

SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS OF OLD DAYS COMPARED WITH THOSE OF PRESENT.

Many Are Demanding That the Public Schools Should Now be Made Largely Technical, and Rather Than Give the Student a General Educational Fit Him For His Chosen Occupation.

The present generation is trying some rather interesting experiments in education, and particularly interesting are those arising out of the demands for vocational training.

In the old days the problem was simple; but few aspired to a college education and these were mostly men preparing for the clergy, medicine, or law. The process was simple and direct, aiming at the teaching of those things most ultimately connected with the proposed calling. In the first attempts at universal education, the solution of the problem was still simple. As long as universal education meant only that children of all the people should learn to read, the process involved little disturbance in the lives of the people, for our great manufacturing cities had not then grown up and people generally lived in the country, where the children went to school only in the winter season.

Now, however, we have reached the point where every child is expected to spend practically all his time in school until he has reached the age of 14. This is not only a sentiment, but law. Under this system he will spend somewhere from six to nine or more years in school, and unless he is exceptionally dull or inattentive, he should be half way through high school while he is still neither is it strange that the pendulum is swinging strongly in the opposite direction and that many men are demanding that these public schools shall be largely technical, since the great mass of our people are and always must be industrial, and every man and woman should be productive. In the insistence of their demand lies a danger, educationally, socially, and politically. The pendulum need not swing to the other extreme. Our error in education has been only partial, not complete. It is not the children should know less of other things, but that they should know more of vocational life. Two principles are well established psychologically; the first is that the learning of one thing is no assurance of the knowledge of another and the second is that two things can frequently be as easily learned as one, providing the proper relations be established between the two.

KERNELS FROM THE CORNBELT.

By Sol E. Quibler.

An ounce of information put into the soil is worth more than all the tons of information expended in hot air at the corner grocery.

There was a hen in our town
And she was wondrous wise,
When she saw an incubator
She batted both her eyes.
"I do not want my chicks hatched
thus,
It is a modern pest!"
So softly she to the tall grass hiked
And there she stole her nest!

A fireless cooker has been known to cure a fiery temper.

We once knew a stovepipe hat that was really useful. It belonged to a widow and after she was through weeping on it she nailed it to the house with the top out. Then she cut a hole no larger than a quarter in it and a pair of wrens established the happiest kind of a home inside. There's no accounting for the sort of place that will make a home.

DEATH OF MR. AND MRS. E. S. MARTIN.

Epaphroditus S. Martin and his wife, former residents of Jacksonville, died within twenty-four hours of each other. Mr. Martin passed away Sunday afternoon, May 25, at the home of his sister, Mrs. McDowell in Delavan, and on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. Martin answered the final summons at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Stiltz in Chicago. Mr. Martin had been also living in Chicago but had gone down to Delavan three weeks ago. He suffered an attack of pneumonia and was only ill three days. He was born in Ohio and was about 72 years of age when he died. His war service extended from Nov. 15, 1861, to Aug. 15, 1862, being a member of the Eighth Illinois infantry under the command of General Richard J. Oglesby. At the battle of Shiloh Mr. Martin had his right arm shattered and also received a number of other wounds which incapacitated him from further service.

Mrs. Martin's maiden name was Mary A. Kidder and she was born in Newark, O., in 1844, being 69 years of age at the time of her death. Her marriage to Mr. Martin took place in 1866. For over twenty-five

NEEDED CHANGE IN MUSIC TEACHING

MUSICAL TRAINING OF BEGIN- NER IS CRITICISED.

No Standard Course Has Been Agreed to in Schools and There is Nothing to Give the Child an Incentive For Serious Study.

In the grades children are in the care (musically) of a teacher who has often had the most meagre training in music; some teachers' qualification being a short course at a summer school. I speak advisedly in this and use the term "very often" in place of "always," as I am aware that there are a number of well equipped teachers in charge of this work.

There is no general agreement in the school as to what shall be given or what the standard shall be. There is nothing in the school or outside to give the child an incentive for serious study in music. Many parents let their children have private lessons on some instrument, as a rule choosing the cheapest teacher available, under the mistaken impression that any kind of instruction is good enough for a beginner, consequently the child is handled in such a crude manner that in many cases a positive distaste for music is the result.

In the high schools matters are even worse. Many high schools have no music, and of those that do, only in a few instances is it counted as credit for graduation. The question of electives comes in, and the students choose subjects that will help them to graduate. The standard of teacher is not raised, and partly because of this only a very small number of colleges and universities accept music for entrance credits. In consequence of this, those who have studied privately are obliged to discontinue, in order to get sufficient units for graduation, or on the other hand those who feel the call of music too strong stop high school and discontinue their general education. This is where the whole fabric falls down.

On the one side, there is a hiatus, or at best a stoppage, in musical education. On the other, a cessation in general education. I am speaking from personal knowledge—acquired in two large universities, having come across many instances of the two sides. This we shall have to face in any solution we attempt. I feel safe to say that the question of music in the high school is one that is causing more discussion and agitation at the present time than anything else.

Between the ages of 12 and 16 is a period when most of the elementary technique in practical work and theory should be mastered. It is a period of general study, one in which it is not so irksome to do what we will call the less interesting branches of musical development. The mind is accustomed to working out similar problems in general education—problems that would be infinitely more distasteful later, when light is beginning to dawn on the maturing intellect. The same thing would happen in the study of a foreign language. If anyone after get-years they made Jacksonville their home, where they raised their family of three children. For a great many years Mrs. Martin had been a sufferer, but her beautiful christian spirit was manifest in all her pains and no one ever heard from her lips one word of complaint. Death was due to cardiac asthma and appendicitis. She was a member of Centenary M. E. church.

The following children survive them: Mrs. Effie Park of Kansas City, Mrs. Grace Stiltz of Chicago and Miss Mertis Martin, also of Chicago, together with one granddaughter, Florence Park.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning from the Methodist church in Delavan and interment was made in the cemetery there. The services were attended by M. D. Rapp, Miss Grace Rapp, William Wilkinson and A. P. Vascellos of this city.

EAGLES IN NEW ROOMS.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles have moved their headquarters from South Sandy street to the third floor of the store building of Daniel McGinnis on the north side of the square. Mr. McGinnis is having the room on the first floor which was damaged by fire a short time since put in order for occupancy.

Let me sum up in a few sentences the chief points already emphasized:

1. Lack of uniformity in courses.
2. Lack of credits—the work is not on the same basis as any other subject.
3. An insufficient number of qualified instructors.

The Teacher.
1. The mediocre and often low standard of general education.
2. The absence of recognized standards in every branch taught.
3. No means of judging qualifications; i. e., nothing which stamps a man in the same way an A. B., LL. B., etc., as in other lines.

PICNIC AT I. S. D.

The annual picnic at I. S. D. School for the Deaf was held yesterday. The day aside from a little warmth was ideal and a delightful time was had. At noon a bountiful repast was spread under the stately elm trees on the lawn, pupils and officers being served. A pleasant feature was the presentation to Supt. Gillett of a large bouquet of exquisite American Beauty roses by the officers and teachers. It was the anniversary of his birth. It might not be out of place to observe that Mr. Gillett was born at the institution which he has so well served for ten years past. Practically all of his life has been spent in the work of caring for and educating the deaf and there are few men in America better versed in all that pertains to the deaf and dumb. Illinois is fortunate in having such a man at the head of this, the largest school for the deaf in the world.

CHARITY AND CORRECTION CONFERENCE TO BE HELD

Fourth Annual Meeting of American Association Meets in June—Jacksonville Superintendents of State Institutions on Reception Committee.

The fourth annual convention of the American Association of Officials of Charity and Correction will be held in Springfield, June 24, 25 and 26. This organization is composed of the State Boards of Charity, State Boards of Control, their officers, superintendents of state charitable and correctional institutions and all others who are engaged in any way in the administration of charity or charitable institutions, either public or private.

It will be one of the most important meetings of the kind ever held. The program will contain the names of many prominent men and women from all sections of the United States.

The organization is fast growing because it brings together a class of officials who are performing a tremendous work but who were not organized until this association came into being a short time ago.

Robert W. Heibner, secretary of the New York Board of Charities, is president. The vice-presidents are W. A. Gates of the California board, Rutherford H. Platt of the Ohio board, Sherman C. Elliott of the Kansas Board of Control. The secretary is William T. Cross of the Missouri board; the treasurer, Robert W. Hill of the New York Board of State and Allied poor. The executive committee consists of A. L. Bowen of the Illinois State Charities commission; George S. Wilson, secretary of the Washington, D. C. Associated Charities; David P. Tilley of the Massachusetts State board; Miss Kate Bernard, commissioner of public charities of Oklahoma, and M. J. Tappins of the Wisconsin Board of Control.

The program will be carried out under five committees as follows:

On dependent children, J. B. Montgomery of Cold Water, Mich., chairman.

On the insane and mentally defective, Dr. F. P. Norbury of Springfield, Ill., chairman.

On administration of institutions, Robert W. Kelso of Boston, chairman.

On home relief, H. H. Shirer of Ohio, chairman.

On correctional problems, Dr. O. F. Lewis of New York city, chairman.

On June 26 the association will go to Jacksonville to visit the State School for Blind, the State School for Deaf and the first state hospital for insane in Illinois.

The association will be welcomed to Illinois by Gov. Edward F. Dunne, and to Springfield by Mayor John S. Schnepf.

A committee of 100 to receive the association has been named and among those to serve will be Dr. H. B. Carriel and Dr. E. F. Foley, Jacksonville State hospital; R. W. Woolston, State School for the Blind; C. P. Gillett, State School for the Deaf.

REV. HUGH KNOWLES SUFFERS LOSS OF TABERNACLE BY FIRE

Gospel Tent Goes up in Smoke and Loss is Estimated at $3,500.

Rev. Hugh Knowles, a former Jacksonville boy who has been making a success as an evangelist, has suffered the loss of his gospel tent at Dewar, Ia., where he was holding a big meeting. The Virginia Enquirer in speaking of the fire says: "Friday morning, May 23, the big evangelistic tabernacle of the Rev. Hugh Knowles, who at present is conducting a big revival meeting at Dewar, Ia., was destroyed by fire and the big tent with nearly all of its contents were burned. The fire originated from the flames of a gasoline stove which was being used by the custodian of the tabernacle, who was pressing some clothes, while the other members of the evangelist's party were in another department of the big tent. They detected the odor of smoke, ran from the tent to discover the kitchen department a mass of flames. Owing to the damp weather the ground of the entire tent had been covered with straw which burned readily and it was but a few minutes until the whole tent was in flames, and it was impossible to remove the seats, platform, piano, books and other articles."

"Rev. Mr. Knowles has met with several losses during the past two years, his first being at Greenfield, Ill., when he suffered a loss by reason of a tornado which destroyed his tent. This spring he lost considerable of his baggage which was swept away in the flood near Cairo."

A man living at Auburn, New York, had a severe attack of kidney and bladder trouble. Being a working man, not wanting to lose time, nor to run up a heavy doctor's bill, he cured himself completely by using Foley's Kidney Pills. A year later he says: "It is a pleasure to report that the cure was permanent." He has had no return whatever of the pain, backache and burning. His name is J. A. Farmer, and he says: "Of course I recommend Foley's Kidney Pills as a very effective cure for kidney and bladder trouble."

For sale by the City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

Illinois Stock Exchange Going Out of Business—The Big Quality Store to Distribute Its Entire Stock at Prices That Mean 33c, 40c and 50c on the Dollar!

This store, one of Jacksonville's most reliable Clothiers and Outfitters, is to retire from business after an honorable merchandising career of over five years. The mammoth stock of new merchandise, consisting of men's, young men's and boys' clothing, furnishings, shoes, ladies' ready-to-wear apparel, etc., of every description, to be placed on sale Saturday, May 31, at 9 a. m., at prices that in many instances will be less than the actual cost of the raw material. This decision to quit business was arrived at by the out-of-town stockholders, who are dissatisfied with their investment here, very unexpectedly, and at a time when every shelf and counter is piled high with new summer merchandise from makers such as the Sincerity Brand and the Summer System Clothing, Cluet and Silver Brand Shirts, Wilson Bros. Hosiery and Underwear, Stetson's and King-Bury Hats; in fact, every line is representative of the highest class makers in all America. Had we known that we would come to the conclusion to quit business so quickly we could have arranged to close out much easier, but now we can do the only thing left, that is to turn over our stock to the mercy of the buying public, beginning Saturday, May 31, at 9 a. m., at prices that will astound the most critical buyers. Never before have the people in Jacksonville and vicinity had such an opportunity as this Quit Business Sale. THINK WHAT THIS MEANS! A chance of a life time to save money on bright, snappy merchandise! A chance to buy your requirements for the entire spring and summer season at prices that mean 40 to 50c on the dollar of the actual value. Remember, the greatest of sales opens Saturday, May 31, at 9 a. m. MARK THE DATE! MARK IT WELL! Doors swing open promptly at 9 a. m. Be on hand early, hold your place at the door.

CLOSED. The store is closed today and no one allowed in the building. A big force of help is now busy marking down and arranging stock for the big sale beginning Saturday, May 31, at 9 a. m., rain or shine.

REMEMBER, this sale is positively a ten day closing out sale, at the end of which time any of this stock then remaining will be shipped to auction rooms in Peoria to be disposed of there. Come one, come all, and attend this the greatest closing out sale here in many years.

SPECIAL NOTICE. As this is absolutely a bonafide going out of business sale we would ask the public to come as early as possible as the lots sold cannot be replaced, so come early for the best selections.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown and Miss Anna Brown entertained at a dancing party at their home on West
State street Friday evening, the guest list including 125. The entire house was cleared and used as a hall for the event and the decorations were very pretty. In the reception room red roses were used, in the dining room pink and the hall and living room white flowers. Music was furnished by Randall's orchestra.

The porch was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns and seats were arranged here. An elaborate luncheon was faultlessly served by Vickery and Merrigan and the evening proved a most delightful one.
Among the guests from out of town were Miss Batchelder of Peoria and Miss White of Little Rock, Ark.

Miss Ruth Jackson of 606 South
Diamond street, entertained Friday afternoon at a sewing, in honor of Miss Zella Stout. The house was very prettily decorated in spring flowers and the time was spent in a delightful manner. In the guessing contests held first prize was won by Miss Marie Wiswell. During the afternoon light refreshments were served and Miss Jackson was assisted in entertaining by Miss Zella Scott.

Members of the Phi Nu Literary society of the Illinois Woman's college held their annual picnic Friday evening on the lawn at the residences of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kinney
and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harmon.
About forty of the young ladies
were present and a very delightful time was spent in playing games and singing the college and society
songs. Misses Frances Frazee, Ara Large and Helen Moore gave readings which were greatly enjoyed.
An excellent picnic lunch was served by the Ladies' Aid society of Centenary M. E. church.

Several hundred resident of Jacksonville were guests at the reception given by the trustees of Illinois Woman's college Friday night.
The visitors were received by Dr.
and Mrs. T. J. Pitner, Dr. and Mrs.
J. R. Harker and Miss Weaver and were presented to Dr. Nicholson, secretary of the board of education of the Methodist church. The trustees and wives of trustees assisted in entertaining. Spring flowers were used effectively in decorating
the reception room and halls. The frappe bowl was located in the library and other refreshments were served in the society halls. A delightful spirit of cordiality prevailed and the occasion was one of very special pleasure.

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS.

The Innovation by the Columbian Society in 1809.

According to a bulletin of the department of agriculture, the first full deded agricultural fair, primarily for competitive exhibits instead of for marketing, was held at the Columbian Agricultural society, which was organized in 1809 by a number of gentlemen
interested in agriculture residing in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Its first exhibition was held in Georgetown, May 10, 1809, and the National Intelligencer of that day reported that it was "attended by a numerous assemblage of members of the society, among whom we noticed the president and his lady, the secretary of state, the secretary of the treasury,
the secretary of war, the comptroller,
register, etc., and many other ladies and gentlemen of respectability."

This fair was mainly devoted to domestic animals and manufacturers.
Semiannual fairs were held until the spring of 1812, when the war with England and the expiration of the time for which the society was organized caused its discontinuance.

The oldest existing agricultural society that holds fairs is the Berkshire Agricultural society, Pittsfield, Mass., which held its first fair in the autumn
of 1810 or only one and one-half years
after the first fair of the Columbian Agricultural society.

NEW YORK'S BATTERY.

Memories of the Early Days of Manhattan's Historic Point.

Superb was the view from the Battery in the old days, and glorious are the wraiths who still haunt its paved and shaded places.

Talleyrand, self exiled from France,
a hundred odd years ago often paced slowly along where thousands now move who perhaps never heard of him.

After Talleyrand came Louis Philippe and Jerome Bonaparte, both of whom knew and admired the Battery.

Lafayette walked its sea wall and gazed out on the bay, and here sauntered that audacious traitor, Benedict Arnold, ruined by an ungovernable temper and a Tory wife.

Here in the same strenuous days
came Clinton and Cornwallis, and here,
through the vista of half a century, we witness the new world's loud voiced welcome to Kossuth.

Nor is the fact to be forgotten that in ancient Castle Garden, transformed
from a fort into an opera house, Jenny Lind one autumn night in 1850 began the triumphal progress which made the name of that richly dowered queen
of song a household word in every nook and corner of America.—Rufus R. Wilson's "Rambles in Colonial Byways."

When Buttons Were Big.

Bachaumont writes in his "Secret Memoirs," Nov. 18, 1786: "The mania
for buttons is today extremely ridiculous. They are not only of enormous size, some of them as big as six pound crowns, but miniatures and pictures
are made upon them, and this ornamentation is extremely costly. Some of them represent the medals of the twelve Caesars, others antique statues
and still others the Metamorphoses of Ovid."

Isabey, in his biographical notes, says that when he came to Paris he worked for a living by making copies of Vanloos and Bouchers on the lids of snuffboxes and that for these medallions he was paid from 6 to 8 francs
each. "As it was still the fashion," he said, "to wear buttons as big as a five franc piece, upon which Cupids, flowers and landscapes were cut in cameo,
I went into that business. I got 12
sous for each."

Heart Burials.

The burial of the heart separate from the body and in another place is an old custom, common in Europe when the heart was supposed to be the center of the affections and the will. Robert Bruce wished his heart to be buried in Jerusalem and intrusted it to his famous friend, "the black Douglas," who was killed before he could fulfill the mission. The hearts of the Hapsburg rulers of Austria are kept in silver caskets in the chapel of the Loretto in Venice, and the hearts of the rulers of Bavaria are similarly preserved apart from the bodies. Luitpold, the late prince regent, ordered, however, that his heart be placed not with the hearts of the other Bavarian rulers, but in its natural place with his own body, beside the body of his wife.—Youth's Companion.

Verdi Was a Frenchman.

Verdi was a Frenchman, though he always claimed to be an Italian. The great composer of "Aida" was a native of Roncole, a village of the old dukedom of Parma, annexed by the great Napoleon in 1808 and made over into the French department of Taro.
Taro was still French in 1813, when Verdi was born. Therefore, though born on Italian soil, Verdi was legally a Frenchman by birth.—Boston Post.

Deceived.

"I want to get a divorce from my wife."
"On what ground?"
"Well, I don't know the legal term
for it, but she didn't tell me before I married her that she was an elocution-ist."

Mistakes.

"We all make mistakes."
"Yes, and, thank goodness, the other fellow's always look worse to us than our own."—Detroit Free Press.

Opportunities approach only those who use them.—Emerson.

REPUDIATES "DEATH BED CONFESSION" WHEN TAKEN TO JAIL

In Previous Statement He Admitted Several Murders and That he Was Slayer of Gen. Meagher in 1887.

Missoula, Mont., May 30.—Conflicting statements made by Pat Miller, alias Frank Diamon, who "confessed" last Tuesday on what he supposed was his death bed to several murders and promptly repudiated his confession late last night when brought here to jail, led the authorities to set afoot today a thorough investigation. Diamon had stated that he was the slayer of General Meagher, a territorial governor of Montana, who was lost from a river steamer in 1887. He denied all knowledge of the supposed crime today but admitted having been employed as a wood cutter at Fort Benton, where General Meagher was drowned. His "confession" said he received $8,000 for "getting rid of Meagher." Today he said he had made that amount by the sale of a mine at about the time of Meagher's death and used it to visit Ireland.

ATTEMPT TO BURN ROYAL ACADEMY IN LONDON

Watchman Discovers Rags and Cotton Burning in Time to Save Building.

London, May 30.—An attempt was made tonight to set fire to the Royal Academy. Although the usual votes for women placards were not found, the police suspect that militant suffragettes were responsible for the attempt to destroy the building in which are housed some of the world's greatest works of art. A watchman discovered in a small room on the ground floor a cardboard box filled with rags and cotton saturated with oil. A number of wax tapes were bound about the box. Four of these were burning when the watchman found the box, which had been so placed that the flames from it easily would have communicated with the walls.

The suffragettes resumed their campaign of destruction tonight in the Lewis Ham branch postoffice which they had attacked several times previously. They set fire to the letters in the building and the flames were extinguished only after a number of them had been destroyed. Bottles containing corrosive mixtures and addressed to Reginald McKenna, home secretary, were found today in a mail box. Telegraph and telephone wires were cut today in various places in Wales. Suffragette literature was found scattered near the scenes of the depredations.

DROPS 400 FEET INTO MUD.

New York, May 30.—Falling 400 feet from an aeroplane to day Arthur Lampham, a youthful parachute jumper, landed feet first in a Staten Island marsh and was buried to his neck in mud. With ropes and boards he was extricated. At a hospital he was found to be suffering from shock. Lampham was taken up by Harry B. Brown, an aviator and was to have made a 500 foot drop. His parachute failed to work when he made his leap.

NEW YORKERS WIN.

New York, May 30.—The Metropolitan Rowing club carried off honors in the 47th annual races of the Harlem regatta association held on the Harlem River speedway course today, taking four races. Most of the other events also went to crews and scullers from New York and its neighborhood. Conditions on the river were perfect.

BATHTUB NOT UNVEILED.

Findlay, O., May 30.—No unveiling ceremony today was accorded the bathtub which was wrecked from Admiral Sigsbee's quarters in the battleship Maine and awarded to the citizens of this city.

Lack of funds has prevented the erection of a pedestal for the tub.

Chicago, May 30.—A delegation of the Chicago association of commerce will start Sunday at midnight upon a fourteen day tour of Illinois, visiting forty-two cities. Edward E. Gore, vice-president of the association will head of the delegation. This is one of the series of annual trade extension trips which has been conducted for several years.

POWDER MILL BLOWS UP.

Oakland, Cal., May 30.—Four powder mill hands were blown to pieces and part of the plant at Giant, fifteen miles north of here, wrecked today by the explosion of nine tons of blasting powder.

HILTON WON CHAMPIONSHIP.

DROWNS IN EFFORT TO SAVE COMPANION

EDWARD HULETT OF BEARDSTOWN GOES DOWN AT VALLEY CITY.

Unknown Man Falls From Motorboat and Both He and Hulett, Who Attempts a Rescue, Die.

In an attempt to rescue a companion who had fallen from a motorboat into the Illinois river at Valley city Friday, Edward Hulett of Beardstown and the other man were drowned. Hulett's body was recovered Friday evening.

Both of the men were out in a motorboat when in some way the man whose identity has not been learned, fell from the boat into the water. Without hesitation Hulett jumped into the river and made a gallant attempt to save his companion, but his heavy clothing, becoming waterlogged, dragged him to the bottom and both were drowned.

Hulett was a young man 22 years of age and a son of Captain and Mrs. Richard Hulett of Beardstown. He had been out of school a year and was employed on the river. The young man was a skillful swimmer and had saved the lives of several drowning people in the Illinois river at Beardstown last summer. He was a sober, industrious and honest young man and was popular among a wide circle of friends at Beardstown.

The body of Hulett was recovered Friday evening and Captain Hulett with some friends went to Valley City to take the remains to Beardstown for burial. The body of the other man had not been found at a late hour Friday night.
